Part II, Line 26:

The liabilities described here are estimates based on the number of subscribers and when they began their subscriptions. Most subscribers are paid but only half-fulfilled at a given time. We estimate that the resources needed to completely fulfill our obligations to the paid subscribers is about half of our annual budget--$35,000, approx. This estimate is similar to what we have used over the years to describe our liabilities at the year's end. It represents the money needed to continue our operation to fulfill all the liabilities to paid subscribers.

Part III, Line 28a, 29a, 30a and 32:

These amounts are approximate estimates of expenses that can be attributed to the program services mentioned in these three lines. Because we are a small organization and we keep records of expenses by the category of the expenses, e.g. printing, postage, office supplies, rent, salaries, etc., we can not further subdivide these expenses and attribute them for each program exactly. Most of our staff and office work goes towards the preparation, production and distribution of our multicultural and nature education magazine that serves students and educators, as reflected here. The total of expenses shown in line 32 is very close to the actual expenses incurred.

Part IV, List of Board, officers and Key Employees:

By our by-laws, the Executive Editor is also a member of the board of directors, and hence the executive editor is listed as a key employee as well as a board member/officer. The salary and compensation paid is for his full-time executive editor duties; not for his board duties. To clarify this, we have included the executive editor and treasurer position separately. Ex. Editor was compensated $7,104 to provide the health insurance coverage.
