Part III: 4a Statement of Program Services

Housing: My Father's House provides emergency shelter for up to 30 families in individual, self-contained units that include kitchenettes and private baths. We also have space for classes, childcare and a large meeting/chapel area.

Food and Clothing: My Father's House provides donated food and clothing to residents through an on-site donation center and free family store.

Family Safety: My Father's House is a secure facility with a single entry point monitored during business hours. Shelter rules are designed to maximize safety and stability for all residents.

Child Safety: My Father's House has developed a comprehensive child safety policy to prevent child abuse and ensure the safety of all children in our shelter, as well as the adults who work with them.

Accountability, Education, Skill Building, and Relational Healing

Our program centers on structured expectations of residents, recovery groups, a comprehensive life skills education program, and focused skill building through case management and counseling. This aspect of the program is the nexus between theory and practice, where our philosophy and beliefs about how to teach, confront, counsel, and foster changes are implemented.

Structured Expectations: Every aspect of shelter life at My Father's House is deliberate and measured, in order to provide an orderly, clean living environment.

Recovery Groups: Some residents will need the additional support of recovery groups. My Father's House hosts a Narcotics Anonymous group on site, and partners with other groups in the community, such as Anger Management, Alcoholics Anonymous, as well as victim support groups. Often, residents will be required to attend such a group during their stay at My Father's House.

Comprehensive Life Skills Program: The Life Skills and Rent Well© curriculums foster change through education and training. The Life Skills program includes 7-8 hours of parent education and training, 18-20 hours of finance and budgeting, 18-20 hours of the recovery class, and a series of one-hour courses on communication, job-preparedness and interviewing, health and leisure, cooking, shopping for bargains, community resources, and others.

Focused Skill Building: Case management is a crucial point of contact with shelter residents. Case managers ensure progress through all aspects of the shelter program through weekly, one-on-one encounters with individuals. The ultimate goal is to foster change through accountability and support, referrals and advocacy. Case managers help their clients make their goals reality.
