Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		It is Educational Media Foundation's (EMF) policy that its Board of Directors will review the IRS Form 990 that is filed on EMF's behalf prior to filing with the IRS. A Board resolution is not required in order for the Form 990 to be filed, however, a period of one week will be the standard review time frame, during which any questions or concerns will be addressed. The means of delivery of the Form 990 shall be via email to each Director.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		All Board members are aware of the Policy on Conflicts of Interest. If any Board member is ever in a position of a potential conflict of interest, the full Board will be made aware of the potential conflict and the Board, less the conflicted member, will determine the appropriate resolution. Additionally, all employees are required to sign a conflict of interest statement. In the event an employee does have a potential conflict of interest, the potential is raised to the Chief Financial Officer, and any appropriate measures are taken. In the case of an employee with a financial interest in a vendor that does business with the Ministry, competitive bids are obtained to verify that the Ministry is obtaining the optimal value for goods or services.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The compensation of officers and key employees, including the CEO, is under the direction of the independent Board of Directors. Comparability studies of market compensation levels for each position are conducted for these employees as well. The Board of Directors deliberates in Executive Session to approve the compensation of the CEO, with the other salaries deliberated on during the formal budget review process.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Organization makes its governing documents available to the public upon request, its conflict of interest policy is available upon request, and financial statements are available on Guidestar's website, Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) website, and upon request.
