Part I, Line 2 - Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used

To receive its grant, a grantee must sign a Grant Conditions Form, which outlines the allowable uses of the funds. The form also sets forth reporting requirements, by which the grantee must submit a written report, typically due a month after the grant term has ended, documenting how the Foundation grant was used, the demographics of those served, and the impact of the grant on the community. A grantee is also required to provide any documentation reasonably requested by the Foundation, including financials, and accommodate reasonable site visits by the Foundation during the year in which grant funds are used by the grantee. Recipients of two-year grants must submit a written report documenting use of the funds in compliance with the Grant Conditions Form prior to receiving the second year of funding. Foundation

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The California Bar Foundation's mission is to build a better justice system for all Californians. We champion full and equal access to the justice system, invest in the next generation of California's lawyers, educate Californians about their rights and responsibilities under the law, and promote philanthropy throughout the legal community.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11 - Form 990 Review Process

The Executive Director and accounting consultant provide all requested information to the certified public accounting firm retained to conduct the Foundation's annual audit and prepare its tax forms. After the CPAs prepare a first draft of the Form 990, the Executive Director and accounting consultant carefully review the completed Form 990 and provide the CPAs with any corrections, edits, or changes. Once the Executive Director and accounting consultant sign off on the Form 990, the draft is circulated to the entire Board of Directors. The President and Audit Committee Chair are asked to carefully review the Form 990 and provide any feedback. Once a final draft is finalized, on behalf of the Board the President or Audit Committee Chair signs the confirmation form that is sent to the CPAs.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The Foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy applies to "interested persons," defined as any director, principal officer, member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, or key employee as defined by the IRS, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined in the Policy. All new members of the Board of Directors are presented with a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy when their first Board terms begin. Board members are required to sign the Conflict of Interest Policy Acknowledgment upon joining the Board and every year thereafter that they remain on the Board. The Executive Director keeps a record of the signed

Acknowledgments and any disclosures by interested persons. The Policy sets forth the process for handling any potential conflicts as well as violations of the Policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process for CEO, Exec. Dir., or Top Mgtment

Early each year, the Personnel Committee, which is made up exclusively of Board members, conducts a performance evaluation of the Executive Director and makes a recommendation regarding her compensation package. The Committee solicits input regarding the Executive Director's performance from Board Members and others outside of the Board. The Committee reviews comparability data regarding executive director salaries from a number of sources, including the Public Interest Clearinghouse, the Center for Non-Profit Management, and other national surveys. In its deliberations, the Committee also weighs the desire to reward excellence, encourage retention, and avoid replacement costs. The Committee presents its evaluation and salary recommendation to the full Board of Directors, which approves the Executive Director's compensation package for the year.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

The organization does not currently have any compensated officers, directors, or key employees other than the Executive Director. A similar compensation review and approval process would be followed, however, if this were to change.
