If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 953,977 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 606,867)

Home Buyer Services and Lending - HomeSights homebuyer program services nearly 400 households annually, including new and existing clients In 2009, 69% of the counseling clients were at or below 80 percent of the area median income HomeSights mission is to serve primarily low-and moderate-income buyers, but as a HUD-certified counseling agency, it cannot discriminate based on income Its HBS program consists of one-on-one counseling, no-cost classes on achieving the dream of homeownership, and assisting clients at risk of default on their mortgages HomeSight developed the Puget Sound Revolving Loan Fund in 2003 to address limited assistance loan resources and the growing gap between family incomes and home prices It offers assistance loans funded by public and private investments to package highly competitive amortizing or deferred second loans and deferred third loans for low and moderate income homebuyers This structure allows HomeSight to eliminate the need for private mortgage insurance and increase the buying power of low and moderate income first-time homebuyers During 2009 HomeSights first-time homebuyer education and lending programs created 80 first-time homebuyers in this market

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 422,225 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 47,987)

Real Estate Development - HomeSights strategy is to use residential development to stimulate economic growth in communities where investment is lagging and build household assets for low income and first-time home buyers HomeSight Development also provides project management services to community non-profit organizations to assist in community development and neighborhood revitalization activities During 2009, HomeSight neared completion on a 102-unit mixed use condominium development in South Seattle HomeSight Development provided project management services to the Entrean Community and to the Housing Authority of Snohomish County for a low income mobile housing program The production pipeline includes an additional 100 units of housing in various stages of pre-development

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 210,034 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Community Development - For the past twenty years, HomeSight has been actively involved in the development of community organizations, facilitating beautification & infrastructure improvement projects and community building activities through its Community Development program HomeSight has managed the development of local cultural centers, and currently supports several local business associations HomeSight is a chartered member of the NeighborWorks Community Building and Organizing (CB & O) Initiative, thus formalizing CB&O as a line of business

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)
(Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses $ 1,586,236

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT We expect employees to avoid situations that might cause their personal interests to conflict with the interests of our organization or to compromise its reputation or integrity. The term "conflict of interest" describes any circumstance that would cast doubt on an employee's ability to act with total objectivity with regard to HomeSight's interest. Each employee is expected to avoid any action or involvement that would in any way compromise his/her actions on behalf of HomeSight. Activities that could raise a question of conflict of interest include, but are not limited to, the following: "To conduct business on behalf of HomeSight with a member of the employee's family or a business organization in which the employee or a member of his/her family has a significant association, which could give rise to a conflict of interest, without first obtaining a written non-objection from the Executive Director; "To serve in an advisory, consultative, technical, or managerial capacity for any non-affiliated business with or is a competitor of HomeSight, without first advising the Executive Director. Every employee is prohibited from participating in any activity or association that creates or appears to create a conflict between the employee's personal interests and HomeSight's business interests. In addition, an employee must not allow any situation or personal interests to interfere with the exercise of independent judgment or with that employee's ability to act in the best interests of HomeSight. Full-time employees are discouraged from accepting second jobs, whether self-employed or otherwise. All employees holding or considering second jobs must obtain permission from the Executive Director in order to ensure that the job will not create a conflict of interest or interfere with the proper performance of their duties. Any potential conflict of interest, real or perceived, shall be reported to the Executive Director or President of the Board of Directors.
