Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Effective for 2009, the Association has adopted the changes to ASC Topic Income Taxes, which requires the Association to evaluate its tax positions and recognize a liability for any positions that would not be considered "more likely than not" to be upheld under a tax authority examination. If such issues exist, the Association's policy will be to recognize any tax liability so recorded, including applicable interest and penalties, as a component of income tax expense. The Association's federal income tax and informational returns for tax years 2006 and subsequent remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The returns for California, the Association's most significant state jurisdiction, remain subject to examination by the California Franchise Tax Board for tax years 2005 and subsequent.
