 Housing and Community Development: Through the construction program, seven houses were built for extremely poor families in need. Nearly 100 volunteers from the United States and Guatemala worked together to build the homes and better lives for the people. These efforts included the distribution of information regarding the conditions of the working poor in Guatemala and the impoverished living conditions in this developing third world country.
 Hundreds of individuals and organizations were educated about the needs affecting Guatemala, through the Construction Outreach Program, many supplies were also collected and distributed including clothing, toys, shoes, construction tools, books, educational supplies, computer technology

4c (Code ) (Expenses $ 163,004 including grants of $ ) (Revenue $ )
 Medical Program: The medical program began in 2003 with the bringing of a young girl to Nashville for life-saving surgery. Medical care was provided at no cost by the doctors and the hospitals that performed the surgery. Since then, the medical program has sponsored two other life saving surgeries for children needing critical care. The program has also sponsored four surgical teams of doctors, nurses and other medical personnel that have travelled to Guatemala to provide life-changing surgical procedures. These trips have provided medical care to hundreds of children and have provided more than 145 surgical procedures for children suffering from debilitating conditions. These initiatives have led to the medical Nutrition: Through the nutrition program, a meal is provided each day to nearly 300 undernourished children and two dozen staff members at Shalom School, located in zone 18 of Guatemala City. The nourishing meals have allowed these children to catch up to their normal weight levels, to concentrate at school and enjoy a much improved daily life. Guatemala ranks third in the world for child stunting rates. Desperate hunger is part of life for many of these extremely poor children.
