Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Promotion of research and exchange of knowledge in the field of human sexuality by encouraging the highest standards of practice and research; assist in developing scientific methods for the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of conditions affecting human sexual function; promote the publication of and encourage contributions to medical and scientific literature in the field of human sexual function.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

ISSM has the following types of members:

Full members, associate members, and honorary members

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - How Members or Shareholders Elect Governing Body

A nominating committee shall be formed for each election. The nominating committee shall be chaired by the immediate past-president of the society. The nominating committee shall consist of all past-presidents plus one member from each Regional Society. Each Regional Society shall determine whether its representative to the Nominating Committee shall be elected by members of the Regional Society or shall be appointed by its Board of Directors. The term of office of each Regional Society representative shall be two years.

The Nominating Committee shall nominate one candidate for each open position.

In addition to the candidates nominated by the Nominating Committee, any member of the Society who is not delinquent of dues or ineligible by law to serve as a company director in the State of California may be nominated for election by presenting to the Secretary General a petition for nomination signed by any 20 full members of the society.

There will not be nominations from the floor during the biennial meeting of the members.

In an election at the biennial meeting of the members, the candidate for each office receiving the most votes shall be elected.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7b - Decisions of Governing Body Approval by Members or Shareholders

Any action that may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting. If an action is taken without a meeting, the Society must distribute a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The ballot must state the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the Society. Such ballot may be taken by electronic transmission but only for a matter referred by the Board of Directors. Approval by written ballot is valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 10b - No Written Policies and Procedures for Chapters, Branches, Affiliates
