Procedures Used for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds outside the United States

As described in Form 990 Part I line 1 of our mission, Fudan University Education Development Foundation is exclusively established to raise funds for academic research and talents cultivation in Fudan University and other educational organizations in China. The majority of the donation is supposed to be granted to China. To make good use of all grants and execute sufficient monitor, our foundation set up such procedures as follow:

- 1) Application: The candidates are required to file application form and submit it with their proposals.
- 2) Screen & Evaluation: Designated professional staffs are responsible for screening and evaluating proposals, then give recommendations for grant action.
- 3) Review & Approval: The proposal is reviewed and approved by different level of officers, special committees, and directors based on the purpose and the amount of grants.
- 4) Periodically Reporting: The grantees are required to provide regular progress reports on quarterly, half yearly or annually basis.

To facilitate the monitoring locally, our largest grantee, Fudan University, sets up a Grant Administration Office on campus, coupled with experienced professional staffs. The office is responsible to both the foundation and the university on grants management. In other words, foundation can get sufficient information of all the grants and put supervise into action with the assistance of the office.
