Target Foundation Grants

Target Foundation grants support arts and social services programs and organizations based in the Minneapolis-St Paul area

Arts Grants

Overview

Target offers grants to schools and nonprofits that bring arts and cultural experiences directly to K-12 students. These programs must have a curriculum component

Guidelines

Art and Culture In Schools grants are $2,000. Grant applications are typically accepted between March 1 and April 30 each year, with grant notifications delivered in September.

Early Childhood Reading Grants

Overview

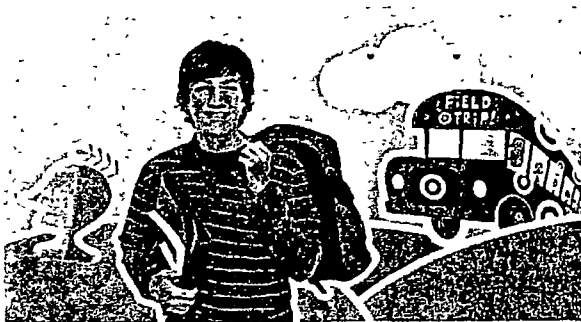

Reading is essential to a child's learning process. That's why Target awards grants to schools, libraries and nonprofit organizations to support programs such as after-school reading events and weekend book clubs. Together we're fostering a love of reading and encouraging children, preschool through third grade, to read together with their families.

Guidelines

Early childhood reading grants are $2,000. Grant applications are typically accepted between March 1 and April 30 each year, with grant notifications delivered in September.

Field Trip Grants

This year, the Target Field Trip Grants program is providing more than 470,000 students with the opportunity to learn through hands-on experiences at thousands of unique destinations. This spring, $4 million will be awarded to educators nationwide to fund 5,000 field trips. Since the program's inception, Target has awarded $9.8 million in grants, providing 1.2 million students in all 50 states the opportunity to experience learning outside the classroom.

Why does the Store Grant Program no longer offer family-violence prevention grants?

We continually evaluate our giving programs to ensure that the needs of our guests and communities are being met. As part of this ongoing evaluation, we are shifting our emphasis within the social services giving area to focus more specifically on basic needs and disaster recovery and relief. We know that many of our team members are heavily involved in family-violence prevention organizations, and we encourage them to continue volunteering with these commendable organizations.

Why is Target's store grant program now placing an emphasis on Arts Education instead of Arts Accessibility?

Our commitment to making the arts affordable and accessible for children and families remains unchanged. We will continue to support arts organizations, though we are shifting the focus of our Store Grant Program slightly from 'Arts Accessibility' to 'Arts and Culture in Schools'. This means that all Store Grant Program funded arts programs must now have a curriculum component. Programs can take place either inside or outside of schools.

At the National level, we will continue to sponsor Arts Accessibility programs nationwide, including our sponsorship of free and reduced price access to arts and cultural events.
