- I. The Principals of Mt. Morris High School in Mt. Morris, New York, Livonia High School of Livonia, New York and York High School of Retsof, New York shall notify the Trustee of the graduating Valedictorians and Salutatorians eligible to receive the Donald and Gladys Heath Memorial Fund Scholarship Trust award from among the graduating class of each school. Each recipient must be pursuing a higher education. The Valedictorian must be the graduating student with the highest scholastic standing. The Salutatorian must be the graduating student with the second highest scholastic standing. In the case of equal grades, the award shall be split accordingly.

The Trustee will request the schools' authorities to display notices of the availability of the awards to qualified students and, if deemed appropriate, the Trustee shall publish in a newspaper having general circulation in the community in which the school is located a notice of the availability of the awards. No application will be required by any qualified student in order to be considered for scholarship grants. All documentation is available from each school's records.

- II. All recipients, as condition to receiving their grants, will sign a consent form which authorizes the institution they attend to provide the Trustee with reports of their academic performance. This report is to consist of a copy of the grades received on courses taken if appropriate. If no grades are available, then the recipients will consent to having his faculty advisor or other appropriate school official report to the Trustee concerning the recipient's performance.
