Form 990 Part 1, line 6. Volunteer trustees establish policies, approve operating procedures and monitor adherence to standards or best practices for community foundations. They also assist in the drafting of fund agreements, provide pro-bono legal review of various transactions, and assist with planned giving presentations to selected donor prospects.

Form 990 Part VI, line 1a. The Board of Trustees periodically delegates authority to the executive committee to act on its behalf. The executive committee consists of the offices (Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer), and a minimum of two trustees elected at large at the annual meeting. The executive committee meets as required to deal with Foundation business between regular meetings of the Board; a quorum requires an attendance of 60%. Actions taken by the committee are subject to ratification by the full Board at the next scheduled meeting.

Form 990 Part VI, line 11A. The 990 form is prepared by a volunteer and then is reviewed by the Treasurer. Comments and revisions are incorporated into the form. This revised form is then emailed to all board trustees for their review. The form plus required schedules are mailed to the IRS after several days have elapsed for possible comments from the trustees.

Form 990 Part VI, line 12C. The conflict of interest policy applies to trustees, volunteer committee members, Professional Advisory Council members and Foundation staff. Questionnaires are completed annually describing business, association or organizational relationships as well as any actual or proposed business dealings with the Foundation which could create a conflict of material interest or appearance of conflict. The Board is responsible for reviewing potential conflicts, but anyone covered by the policy is required to disclose the existence of or potential conflict of interest with any transaction, refrain from personally influencing Board action on such a transaction, and recuse themselves from discussion or decisions on the subject transaction.

Form 990 Part VI, line 15. The compensation policy of the Foundation includes the review and approval by the Board or compensation committee, use of data as to comparable compensation for similar positions and geographic area, and documentation of the executive director review and compensation decisions. The Foundation follows a yearly review process for the other staff members - none of which fall under the IRS definition of "key employee".

Form 990 Part VI, line 19. All policies, governing documents, and financial statements are available upon request. Financial statements are prepared quarterly for distribution to designated non profits, field of interest committees, and donor advisors. The prior year audit and IRS form 990 are maintained in a public document binder and are available to the public and other interested persons.
