The Friends of the Bloomfield Township Public Library is a common local group supporting the local public library. Books and media are donated by the citizens of the area throughout the year and are sold at minimal prices through "used book sales".

Memberships are collected for early entry to the book sales and to support the "Friends".

Contributions are made during the year as "memorials".

Friends have use of all library services and facilities without charge.

All officers, board members, and sale personnel are volunteers.

The Friends contribute funds for special library projects and public events. Fund requests are received from library departments and administrators throughout the year.
