Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The Foundation has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic ASC 740-10 (previously Financial Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes), on April 1, 2009. The implementation of this standard had no impact on the financial statements. As of both the date of adoption, and as of March 31, 2010, the unrecognized tax benefit accrual was zero. The Foundation will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense if incurred. The Foundation is no longer subject to Federal tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2006.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The CEO/President of the Organization will review Form 990. After his review, the 990 will be given to the board of directors. If so requested, the 990 will be presented at a board meeting and board member comments will be discussed. The 990 will be filed with the IRS following this procedure.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Organization makes its governing documents and financial statements available to the public upon request.
		Form 990, Schedule A Facts and Circumstance Facts and Circumstances to be Considered a Publicly Supported Organization Under 509(a)(1). Jenkins Living Center Foundation fails to meet the public support test for the years ended March 31, 2005 through March 31, 2010. However, based on the following facts and circumstances, the organization should continue to be recognized as a publicly supported organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1) Ten-Percent of Support. The total amount of public support for the organization during the above mentioned period is 25.969%. Therefore, the total public support is greater than the required 10% Attraction of Public Support. The organization did not receive more than 33 1/3% of its support from government units or from contributions from the general public during the above mentioned time period. However, starting in the fiscal year end of 2006 the organization implemented an annual fundraising event which occurs on Valentine's Day. During the fiscal year 2010, the organization made continuous efforts to carry out this fundraising activity. The brochures featuring the organization's fundraising event were printed and distributed to solicit contributions from public Sources of Support. Jenkins Living Center Foundation does not receive support from a single family, rather it receives support from members of the general public. The organization received a portion of its support from individuals in the community. Representative Governing Body. Jenkins Living Center Foundation is served by a governing body that represents the interest of the public, it does not represent the interests of the donors of Jenkins Living Center Foundation. These representatives ensure that the organization meets the needs of the community. Based on the above facts and circumstances, Jenkins Living Center Foundation should continue to be considered as publicly supported under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1).
