ESTHER PFLEIDERER CHARITABLE TRUST

The Esther Pfeleiderer Charitable Trust was established by Esther to assist charitable organizations located in Kosciusko County in improving the quality of life in the county. The Advisory Committee will review each request and make grants to those who have demonstrated a clear need that their organization can fulfill with the aid of a grant. The discretionary grants will be made to 501 [c] [3] organizations established for one of the following purposes: charitable, preservation of family genealogies, church pre-school programs, human services, recreational, educational, arts, civic enhancement and public safety.

In making grants, the Advisory Committee shall give consideration to the overall number of people who would potentially benefit from the grant. Organizations that Esther Pfeleiderer was involved with during her lifetime will receive preference in the awarding process. In addition the Advisory Committee will favor activities that:

- Reach citizens whose needs are not being met by government sources
- Stimulate and encourage additional funding
- Assist organizations become more effective or operate more efficiently
- Provide seed money for a community wide project
- Promote cooperation among various charitable organizations

Low priority will be given to applications for debt reduction, salaries, fund raising projects, contributions to endowments, or projects where the grant is the sole funding source.
