Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 11A Form 990 is presented to the governing body before it is filed. All parties may review the form and present any questions and/or issues that they have with the return. All questions and/or issues are reviewed with the preparer and any changes are made as necessary before final filing.

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 12-14 The organization currently does not have a formal written conflict of interest, whistleblower or document retention policy. As the governing body has a fiduciary duty to the Foundation, these policies are currently upheld by the officers but have not been formally documented. Currently, the Foundation is in the process of finalizing the formal written policies.

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15 The JBA Foundation does not pay any compensation to its governing body. There are no employees of the organization. All services are performed on a voluntary basis.

Form 990 Part VI Section C Line 19 Currently, the Foundation does not make its governing documents or financial statements available to the general public. The Foundation will provide the governing documents upon request to members of JBA and the financial statements are available for viewing by the members of JBA on their website.

Form 990 Part XI Line 2C The Foundation enlists the assistance of the officers (namely the Secretary/Treasurer) to work with the independent accountant on the compilation of its financial statements. The accounting firm is approved by the governing body of the organization. In addition, upon initial review of the financial statements by the secretary/treasurer, they are presented to the other officers for final review and approval before issuance.
