Schedule I, Part I, Line 2: The Foundation monitors its grants through an initial application process and interim/final reporting over the grant period. There is a semi-annual competitive application process in which nonprofits are invited to apply for funding of capital projects. A committee is selected by the Class I Directors to manage the grant application and monitoring process. In the application phase, the monitoring committee reviews the applications, meets with potential grantees, verifies the applicants are 501c3 organizations, and compiles the list of potential grant recipients for the Canale Foundation directors. The monitoring committee is then charged with overseeing the project status for the duration of the grant period. To assist with this ongoing review, the grant recipient is required to submit a written narrative and financial report of the project status to the monitoring committee on either a semi-annual or annual basis, depending upon the length of the project. All grantees are required to submit a final report to the monitoring committee upon completion of the grant period.

Part IV Supplemental Information

The compensated officers of the Foundation are employed by the related supported organization. On an annual basis, the following process is used by that organization in determining compensation. All employees are compensated based on information obtained from job performance, salary comparability studies and other factors. The president of the supported organization at his discretion uses this information to determine compensation for all employees of the organization, with the exception of himself. The executive committee reviews and recommends the compensation level for the president through the use of the same information described above for other employees. During the annual budget process, the president includes the recommended compensation levels for all employees in the budget. Upon presentation of the budget to the executive committee of the board, the committee reviews the recommended compensation levels and has the authority to adjust the salary as deemed appropriate. After approval by the executive committee, the entire board of directors considers and approves the compensation level by approval of the annual budget.

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

OMB No 1545-1709

► File a separate application for each return

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box ☒ X
 - If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form)
- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed)

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension - check this box and complete Part I only ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns

Electronic Filing (e-file). Generally, you can electronically file Form 8868 if you want a 3-month automatic extension of time to file one of the returns noted below (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T). However, you cannot file Form 8868 electronically if (1) you want the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension or (2) you file Forms 990-BL, 6069, or 8870, group returns, or a composite or consolidated Form 990-T. Instead, you must submit the fully completed and signed page 2 (Part II) of Form 8868. For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits
