Part III, Line 1a		Collection items in the College's art collection are held for public exhibition, education or research in furtherance of public service and are not capitalized. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the statement of activities. All proceeds from the sale of collection items are used to acquire other items for the collection.
Part III, Line 4		Collection items in the College's art collection are held for public exhibition, education or research in furtherance of public service and are not capitalized. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the statement of activities. All proceeds from the sale of collection items are used to acquire other items for the collection.
Part IV, Line 2b		The College holds various funds for student organizations at the College.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The College has adopted ASC Section 740, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. For tax-exempt entities, their tax-exempt status itself is deemed to be an uncertainty, since events could potentially occur to jeopardize their tax-exempt status. ASC Section 740 provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosures, and transition. The College adopted the provisions of ASC Section 740 in fiscal year 2009 and there was no impact on the financial statements. At the date of adoption and as of May 31, 2010, the College did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The College files tax returns in the U S federal jurisdiction and New York State. The College is no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years through 2006.
