Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Yes, the completed William Taylor Foundation Form 990 will be posted to a website, accessible by the board of trustees for their review prior to filing. In addition, the Foundation's independent certified public accounting firm reviewed the Form 990 prior to filing. The Foundation utilized this process to ensure that its Form 990 received substantive review by directors and professionals with specific knowledge of the Foundation's activities and extensive financial, accounting and tax expertise.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Foundation and University have adopted a conflict of interest policy that requires directors, officers and key employees to submit an annual conflict of interest disclosure. The annual disclosure requires directors, officers and key employees to disclose, in writing, any known financial interest that the individual (together with family members) has in any business entity that transacts business with the Organization. In addition, directors, officers and key employees are required to immediately disclose any possible conflict of interest that arises mid-year in relation to a proposed transaction. The Conflict of Interest Policy requires that any individual with a conflict be recused from the decisionmaking process, that independent directors or committee members determine that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Organization, and the transaction must be approved by a vote of the independent directors or committee members without the participation of any interested individual. The annual conflict disclosure statements are submitted to, and reviewed by, the audit committee, composed of independent outside directors. In addition, the executive staff is responsible for monitoring any possible conflict transactions that arise and managing them to ensure that all transactions represent arms' length, fair market value terms for the benefit of the Organization.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements will be provided upon request, either as a printed or electronic copy.
Form 990 Part XI, Line 2c	Audit Committee Process	The Foundation has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
Form 990 Part I, Lines 5 and 15	Number of Employees & Salaries, Compensation, and Other Benefits	William Taylor Foundation does not itself have any employees, so line 5 is reported as "0". However, during the fiscal year ended 5/31/10, the Foundation did reimburse Taylor University for services provided by one University employee who serves as an officer of the Foundation.
Form 990 Part V, Line 2a, Part VII, Column (D), and 990 Part XI, Line 5	Officer Compensation	Although the William Taylor Foundation does not itself have any employees, during the fiscal year ended 5/31/10, the Foundation did reimburse Taylor University for services provided by one University employee who serves as an officer of the Foundation.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, #13	Whistleblower Policy	The Foundation leases employees from Taylor University. The University has a whistleblower policy applicable to these employees.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, #15a and 15b	Executive Compensation Policy	The Foundation leases all employees from Taylor University. The University has adopted an Executive Compensation and Intermediate Sanctions Policy that ensures that all compensation arrangements with related parties are evaluated and entered at arms' length and that any compensation that is paid to a related party is reasonable and reflects fair market value. The Policy encourages the application of the rebuttable presumption standard of Code Section 4958 and the related Treasury Regulations by (a) excluding any interested party from the decisionmaking process, (b) requiring disinterested board or committee members to obtain and rely upon comparability data when setting the proposed compensation terms, (c) requiring approval of the transaction in advance by disinterested trustees or committee members, and (d) requiring contemporaneous documentation (i.e., minutes) reflecting the decision and the process by which it was made. In the case of the President's compensation, the Executive Committee (composed entirely of independent members of the University board of trustees), is responsible for ensuring that the process outlined above is applied.
