Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12		Good News has a conflict of interest policy in place and is currently working on a process that would require each officer, Board Member and Audit Committee member to sign a conflict of interest form each year. This will be completed and implemented for the next fiscal year.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Good News utilizes industry comparable data from multiple sources to recommend salary and bonus figures for management. This information is then compiled, and recommendations for all officers, as well as a general percentage increase for all other employees, are submitted to the audit committee. The audit committee reviews, discusses, has the ability to change recommendations, and then approves the submission, which in turn is brought to the full board by way of recommendation of the audit committee. The full board then takes the recommendation, has further discussion if necessary, and then approves the recommendation from the audit committee. Audit committee members (and any family members on the board) who are also compensated officers are excused from the part of the meeting that would cover any discussion over compensation or bonuses, so they would have no say or vote in the matter. The decisions regarding compensation are then documented in the minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are all available upon request.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c		Good News Publishers has an Audit Committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit and is involved in the selection of an independent accounting firm. This process remains unchanged from the prior year.
