Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	MCAD's endowment consists of approximately 130 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. The endowment provides scholarships to students and grants for departmental needs.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the College is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is also exempt from state income tax. However, any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation. In accordance with the accounting standard on Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, the College addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the College may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merit of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the College and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. There were no significant unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during fiscal year 2010. Open tax years subject to examination by the U.S. and state taxing authorities are for the years 2007 to 2009, which statutes expire in 2010 to 2012, respectively.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1		The executive committee has delegated authority. It is comprised of all of the chairs of the standing committees of the board except for the president, who who attends as ex-officio and does not vote, the officers of the board, and the immediate past board chair. The scope of the committee's authority is that it serves at the pleasure of the Board as its agent in helping the president to address nonessential business between regular Board meetings, and it suggests Board meeting agenda items and periodically assesses the quality of committee work. The committee has authority on all matters except for the following: presidential selection and termination, trustee and Board-officer election, changes in institutional mission and purposes, changes to the charter or articles of incorporation, incurring of corporate indebtedness, sale of college assets or tangible property, adoption of the annual budget, and conferral of degrees. In addition bylaws or Board policies may reserve other powers to the Board of Trustees.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		This form 990 was reviewed by tax counsel and subsequently by the finance chair and the VP of Finance. The Board of Trustees is provided the Form 990 after its filing, it's on the agenda, and is discussed for 15-30 min during a regular board meeting by the end of the current fiscal year.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		All board members and officers are subject to the following policy: Individuals who disclose a potential conflict of interest must leave the relevant meeting while a determination of materiality of the conflict is made. If a conflict is determined to exist within the scope of the policy, the individuals with the conflict must leave the room and abstain from voting on the proposed transaction or arrangement. The person with the conflict will be out of the room aside from attending when the BOT wants to ask questions of them. An individual is considered to have a conflict of interest within the scope of the policy if he or she (1) has existing or potential financial or other interests that impair or appear to impair his or her independent, unbiased judgment in the discharge of his or her responsibilities to the College, or (2) is aware that a member of his or her family has financial or other interests that would impair or appear to impair the trustee's independent judgment in the discharge of his or her responsibilities to the College. For the purposes of this provision, a family member is defined as a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, or any other relative residing in the same household as the trustee. All trustees shall disclose to the Board any possible conflict of interest at the earliest practical time. Further, the trustee shall absent himself or herself from discussions of, and abstain from voting on, such matters under consideration by the Board of Trustees or its committees. The minutes of such meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made and that the trustee with a conflict or possible conflict abstained from voting. Any trustee who is uncertain as to whether a conflict of interest may exist in any matter may request that the Board of committee resolve the question in his or her absence by majority vote. Each trustee shall complete and sign a conflict of interest disclosure form provided annually by the secretary of the Board of Trustees.
