Primary Exempt Purpose

The Colfax-Mingo Educational Foundation was organized for the purpose of raising money through fund raising and donations that could be utilized within our school system for educational material for our students. The Foundation provides educational items not provided by our school districts regular budget. We accept requests from all our teachers as a need arises. All of our 900 plus students in our school district benefit from the Colfax-Mingo Educational Foundation.

The Foundation has also purchased property that we rent to the school district. This is property that houses our central office and bus barn facility.
