ENDOCRINE NURSES SOCIETY
BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I
NAME, PURPOSE, MISSION, PHILOSOPHY

Section A: Name

The name of the organization is the Endocrine Nurses Society herein referred to as ENS.

Section B: Purpose

A professional organization promoting clinical excellence in the art and science of Endocrine Nursing throughout the world.

Section C: Mission

The ENS is organized to advance the highest standards of endocrine nursing practice, education, and research. The ENS is committed to promoting healthy lifestyle choices in the prevention and management of endocrine-related health disorders. ENS will act to facilitate communication among its members, support interdisciplinary collaboration, and provide a forum for learning and sharing.

Section D: Philosophy

ENS believes that the patient is the fundamental focus of health care. We believe the quality of patient care is greatly enhanced through the promotion of education and collaboration of nurses in the multi-specialties of endocrine nursing. We believe the advancement of endocrine nursing clinical practice is based on research and are committed to the sharing of new ideas. We further believe that a sense of professional pride evolves with an expanded knowledge base, increased opportunity for interdisciplinary collaboration and the recognition of superior achievement within our membership.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

Section A: Categories of membership

ENS shall have two (2) categories of membership as follows: Full Members and Associate Members.

Section B: Full Members

The candidate for Full membership must be a registered nurse with special interest in endocrine nursing or endocrine research.

The privileges of Full membership shall include the right to vote in national meetings and elections, to hold office, to serve as a member or chairperson of committees, and to submit nominations for office.

Section C: Associate Members

Associate Membership is available to others interested in the field of endocrinology. Associate Members shall have the right to vote and serve as a member of standing committees.

Section D: Membership Dues and Assessments

Membership dues in the ENS shall be determined by the Executive Board.

Dues shall be collected annually or biannually and are due and payable by January 1 of each calendar year.

Special assessments may be required of the membership in extraordinary circumstances as determined by a majority vote of the Executive Board. These assessments shall be treated in the same manner as annual dues, subject to the same rules of delinquency, reinstatement and termination of membership as directed by these by-laws.

Section F: Delinquent Dues and Reinstatement of Membership

Annual dues are considered to be delinquent on March 1 of each year. Any member whose dues remain unpaid shall be removed from the membership roster.

Reinstatement of membership status can be affected by submitting an application form and the amount of annual dues or the amount of the special assessment.

Section G: Non-liability of Members

No member of ENS, with the exception of the Executive board member, shall be personally liable for debts, liabilities, or obligations of ENS.

Section H: Termination of Membership

Membership shall terminate:

- a. On receipt by the Endocrine Board of written or typed resignation of member;
- b. On the death of a member;
- c. On the failure of a member to pay annual dues on or before the due date; or
- d. In the event that a member becomes suspended or expelled or has membership terminated by ENS for any reason.

Section I: Suspension/Expulsion

Should any members' professional license be suspended, then that member will automatically be suspended and subject to expulsion by the Executive Board upon review. Should any member's professional license be revoked, membership to ENS shall be automatically terminated.

Failure to comply with the By-laws and policies of the ENS shall be cause for expulsion from membership. A member shall be removed by 2/3 vote of the Executive Board after 15 days notice by certified mail. An opportunity for a hearing before the Executive Board shall be given. An expelled member may not be reinstated at any future time without 3/4 affirmative vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE III EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section A: Number

ENS shall have five Executive Board members collectively known as the Executive Board.

Section B: Powers

The Executive Board shall exercise the powers of ENS, control its property, and conduct its affairs, except otherwise provided by law.

Section C:

For establishment, all policy must be proposed to the Executive Board. Major policy decisions, other than working policy, may be referred to the voting membership for ratification by majority of votes cast. Policy is a definite course of action selected to guide and determine present and future major decisions within the framework of the By-laws.

Section D: Election and Term of Office

The Executive Board shall consist of the President, President-Elect, or Immediate Past-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and an "At-large" Board member elected by the members of the ENS.

The term of office of the President shall be for two years and President-elect shall be for one year.

The term of office for the Secretary shall be for two years, and may be elected to serve for two consecutive terms. The term of office of the Treasurer shall be for two years and may be elected for two consecutive terms. The Immediate Past-President shall be a member of the Executive Board for one year, following completion of term as President. The "At-Large" Board seat shall serve for a term of two years. Officer elections will be alternated annually to maintain continuity of service as to the society.

Section E: Vacancies

In the event that a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the President-Elect or immediate Past – President shall immediately assume the office of President. If the president- elect fills the vacated office, the president-elect shall serve the remainder of the vacated term and the President-elect elected term. Should the past- president fill the vacated office, the past president will serve until a president-elect is identified and able to serve.

Vacancies in the office of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by an immediate vote of the Executive Board and each officer so selected shall hold office until the installation of a successor.

A vacancy in the position of the At-Large Board seats shall be filled at the next official election.

Section F: Compensation

The Board shall serve without compensation.

Section G: Time and Place of Regular and Special Meetings

Regular meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the President. Special meetings of the Executive Board may be called by the President, or in the President's absence or inability or refusal to act, by 2/3 vote of the Executive board, and such meeting shall be held at the place designated by the person or persons calling the meeting.

Section H: Notices

The Secretary of ENS, or other persons designated by the President, shall deliver written, printed and/or electronic notice of the time and place of special meetings of the Board to each Board member personally by United States mail at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting, except the notice of all regular meetings of the Board members which is hereby dispensed with.

Section I: Validation of Meetings Defectively Called or Noticed

The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed and wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call and notice, provided a quorum is present and provided that either before or after the meeting, each of the Board members not present signs a waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the meeting thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with ENS records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section J: Conduct of Meetings

Except as otherwise expressly provided by these By-laws, no business shall be considered by the Board at any meeting at which a quorum, hereinafter defined, is not present. The only motion which the Chair shall entertain at such meetings is a motion to adjourn.

All meetings of the Executive Board shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order-Newly Revised, and such rules may be revised from time-to-time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent or in conflict with these By-laws, or with the law.

Meetings of the Executive Board shall be presided over by the President, or in the President's absence, by the President-Elect or in the absence of both, by the Secretary. The Secretary of the ENS shall act as Secretary to the Board. In case the Secretary is absent from any meeting of the Board, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary for the meeting.

Section K: Quorum

A quorum shall consist of four Board members, at least two of whom are Executive Board members.

Section L: Board Action

Every act or decision carried out by, or made by, the Executive Board must be made by the majority of Board members present, except as otherwise provided by the By-Laws.

Section M: Action by Unanimous Written Consent Without Action

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Executive Board under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, and the members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Executive board without a meeting and that the By-laws of ENS authorize the Board members to so act, and such statements shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

Section N: Non-liability of Board Members employers

The Board members employers shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of ENS.

Section O: Removal of Executive Board Member

The entire Executive board or any Board member and all officers or any individual officer, may be removed from office at any time the vote of 3/4 of those members voting at any regular or special meeting of the members. If any or all Board members or officers are so removed, new Board members and officers may be elected at the same meeting and they shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the removed Board member or office.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section A: Election of Officers

ENS shall have a President, a President-Elect, a Secretary, and a Treasurer who shall be elected by the members of the ENS. The President-Elect, upon expiration of the term and without further vote of the membership shall succeed to the office of President.

Nomination for officers shall be made by a nominating committee, chaired by the immediate Past-President or President-Elect (whoever is on the Executive Board at the time). The committee shall prepare a slate of candidates for each of the offices of the President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Board seats to present to the Executive Board for approval. The president-elect nominee(s) will have served on the ENS board for a minimum of two years and be a member in good standing. The nominee(s) for treasurer will have been a member in good standing for a minimum of 2 years. The officers shall be elected from this list in accordance with procedures established by the Executive Board. The terms of officers begin immediately after the annual meeting. Therefore, the current Secretary, President, Treasurer, etc. are responsible for the conduct of the annual meeting.

Section B: Duties of President

The President shall be principal executive officer of ENS and shall be responsible to the Executive Board. The President shall preside at all business meetings of the Executive Board and the members, appoint chair persons of all committees and task forces, except as otherwise provided in the By-laws, serve as the official representative of ENS and execute all business of ENS as set forth in the By-laws. The President shall be an ex officio member of all standing committees and task forces. The President shall serve a two year term.

Section C: Duties of the President-Elect

The President-Elect shall assume the duties of the President in the President's absence. The President-Elect shall perform duties as delegated by the Executive Board. The President-Elect shall observe the functions of the organization and work closely with the President on existing and future projects. The President-Elect shall serve a one year term and subsequently serve as President the following two years. The President-Elect must have served no less than two years on the Board immediately prior to election.

Section D: Duties of the Secretary

The Secretary shall keep minutes of all meetings of the members and of the Executive board, shall be responsible for ENS records, shall be responsible for records of attendance of annual meetings, shall give notices as required by these By-laws, and generally shall perform all duties incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as may be required by law or by these By-laws, or which may be assigned from time to time by the Executive Board.

Section E: Duties of the Treasurer

The Treasurer shall have responsibility for such funds of ENS, shall render reports and accounting to the Executive Board and to the members, and shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as may be required by law, or by these By-laws, or which may be assigned by the Executive Board.

Section F: Duties of Past President

The outgoing President shall subsequently serve a one year term as immediate Past President. The immediate Past President shall serve as an advisor to the Executive board, serve as liaison with other professional organizations, and shall perform such duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Executive Board and these By-laws.

Section G: Duties of the board Member "At-Large"

The Board member "At-Large" shall serve a two year term. The Board member "At-Large" shall represent the membership at-large, act as a consultant to the Executive and General Board, and perform such duties as may arise from time to time and are prescribed by the Executive Board. These may include: planning Board meetings, writing for the newsletter, or supporting the work of various committees.

ARTICLE V MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section A: Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of the members shall be held each year for the purpose of announcing election results, installing officers, and further transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The Executive Board shall determine the place and date of such meetings at least six months prior thereto and announcement thereof shall be sent to the members at such time. In addition, notice of meetings shall be given as is set forth below.

Section B: Special Meetings

Special meetings of the membership may be called by the President, the Executive Board, or by written application of not less than 1/10 of the active members.

Section C: Place of Meetings

The Executive Board may designate any place as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or any special meeting called by the Executive Board.

Section D: Notice of Meetings

Notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting of membership shall be delivered either personally, by mail and/or electronically to each member not less than 10 and not more than 60 days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or person calling the meeting. In case of special purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice. If mailed, the notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail and addressed to the member at the address as it appears on the records of ENS.

Section E: Quorum

The members holding 1/3 of the votes which may be cast at any meeting shall constitute a quorum at such meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the members, the majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting.

Section F: Proxies

At any meeting of membership, a member entitled to vote may be proxy executed in writing by the member or by the member's duly authorized attorney in fact.

Section G: Manner of Acting

A majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be voted upon by the members present are represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be necessary for the adoption thereof unless a greater proportion is required by law or these By-laws.

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEES

Section A: Committee Appointment and Supervision

Chairpersons shall be appointed by the President, except as otherwise provided in these By-laws, with the approval of the Executive Board and shall serve a two year term. There is no restriction on re-appointment.

Chairpersons of standing committees must be full members of ENS. They may appoint associate chairs from the full membership. They may appoint committee members from the full or associate membership.

Section B: Standing Committees

The standing committees of the Endocrine Nurses Society may include:

1. Membership Committee
2. Program Committee
3. Development Committee
4. Research Committee
5. Publication Committee
6. Marketing Committee
7. Education Committee

The By-laws and Policy Committee shall serve as an ad hoc committee under the direction of the Executive Board.

Section C: Special Committees

Special committees or task forces may be created and/or dissolved by the Executive Board as needed.

The Nominating committee shall be an appointed committee and the immediate Past President as its chair. Members may be appointed from the Standing Committees.

Section D: Guidelines

The function of each standing committee shall be determined by the Board and written in its policy.

ARTICLE VII AMENDMENT TO BY-LAWS

These By-laws may be altered, amended, or repealed and new By-laws may be adopted by the majority of the members present at any regular or at any special meeting, provided that written notice be given of intention to alter, amend, or repeal and to adopt new By-laws at such meetings.

Every third year the By-laws Committee will review these By-laws and recommend amendments in the manner described herein.

ARTICLE VIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section A: Fiscal Year

The Fiscal year of the Endocrine Nurses Society shall be established by the Executive Board.

Section B: Parliamentary Authority

Robert's Rules of Order-Newly Revised and as may be amended, shall govern and conduct of ENS business in all cases in which they are applicable and not in conflict with the competition, By-laws, policies, special rules or standing rules of this association.

Section C: Records

Full members of ENS shall have inspection right and rights to copy ENS records as they are permitted by law and these By-laws. Policy and procedure shall determine records being confidential which shall not be subject to disclosure.

Section D: Gifts

The Executive Board may accept on behalf of the Endocrine Nurses Society any contributions, gift, request, or devise for the general purposes or any special purpose of the Endocrine Nurses Society.

ARTICLE IX ORGANIZATION

This organization is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

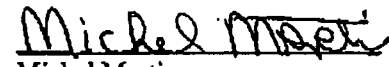

"Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an association exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) or (B) by association contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (C) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law)".

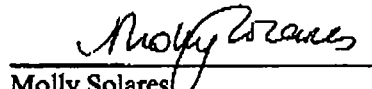

"Upon the dissolution of this association, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future tax code), or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the association is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes."
