We conducted research and helped develop policies on health care reform that would increase access and affordability; researched and analyzed policies on reducing global warming, taxation and economic development and ethics in government.
Public Education: Educated the public throughout the year about numerous health and welfare issues in NM, including the environment, ethical government, the economy, the state budget and health care utilizing op-eds, letter to the editor, radio ads, and mailers.
Civic Participation: Worked in the fiscal year to increase civic participation. Reached out to 7,000 voters in Albuquerque with a non-partisan Get Out the Vote program for the city election. Through phone calls, we encouraged many young people and traditionally disenfranchised individuals to vote. Additionally, conducted a leadership training program for youth interns.
