Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The Williston Northampton School aspires to be a vigorous community of learners and teachers seeking together the ability and courage for lifelong intellectual and moral growth. We believe the foundation for college success and global citizenry is centered in the art of instruction and in the excitement and adventure of discovery. Our school is structured to create an environment of academic rigor. To explore life's inclusiveness, we welcome a diversity of personalities, talent, and experience onto our campus. Our mutual respect and caring allow us to address differences as we live, work, and belong together. Believing that we are wholly educated only when the mind, body, and artistic spirit are equally exercised, we celebrate the expression of our creative natures through music, dance, drama, and the fine arts. Above all in our community we honor character and our individual quests for integrity, accomplishment, and purpose.
