SchD_P04_S00_L02b	Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	The College maintains custodial or "pass through" accounts for Federal student loans, Pell grant and state grants. Funds are held in these accounts until distributed to individual students. The College also maintains custodial accounts for student government and student ministry groups and activities.
SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended use of endowment funds is driven by donor restrictions on our endowments. Approximately 62% of appropriated revenues this year were in scholarship awards. 26% of revenues supported general activities and physical plant. The remaining 12% was allocated to instructional activities and academic support programs. Distributions of income are made using a total return method. We use a spending rate of 5% of the 3 year rolling average of the fair market value of the investments.
SchD_P10_S00_L00	Schedule D, Part X	FIN 48 Footnote. The College is recognized as an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, certain activities of exempt organizations, to the extent profitable, may be subject to federal and state taxation as unrelated business income. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in these financial statements. The College recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. The College has applied this more-likely-than-not threshold to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations remained open and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits as of that date. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits since adoption. It is the College's policy to record estimated interest and penalties (if any) as part of management and general expense. Management believes that the College's income tax returns for fiscal years 2006 and prior are no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities.
SchD_P11_S00_L08	Schedule D, Part XI, Line 8	Included in this figure is the change in value of interest rate swap agreements of (1,239,551) and the change in split interest agreements of (579,031).
SchD_P12_S00_L02d	Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d	This figure includes the FWS apportionment budget allocation of 253,678 included in income on the financial statements, the golf tournament expenses of 48,410 included in expense on the financial statements and the loss on disposal of a leasehold improvement of 780,157.

SchJ_P01_S00_L01a	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions. Occasionally spouses of officers accompany them on business trips for the College. In order to be treated as a working condition fringe benefit, the College requires substantiation of the trip as a bonafide business expense for both the officer and the spouse. If there is no business purpose for the spouse, the spousal travel is treated as taxable income to the officer or the officer reimburses the College. One officer incurred spousal travel and all the travel was treated as nontaxable. Housing allowance or residence for personal use. One listed person received this benefit. The President is required to live in on-campus housing for hosting purposes and 24/7 availability to the campus community. Because of this requirement, it is excluded from wages under Section 119 of the IRS code. Health or social club dues or initiation fees. Two listed persons received this benefit. The President is required by the Board to have a Harvard Club membership provided by the College. It was used for business purposes only and none of it was treated as taxable compensation. The Vice President of Development is required to have a College provided membership to the Myopia Hunt Club. A portion of the value was treated as taxable compensation for personal use of a working condition fringe benefit.
SchJ_P01_S00_L04	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	Some officers and highly compensated employees participated in a 457(f) deferred compensation plan. Each participant must be judged by the executive committee of the board to have attained goals at the end of the fiscal year and funds must be available in the College budget in order for a deposit to be made for the participant in the 457(f) plan. After funds are deposited, there is a substantial risk of forfeiture for a 3 year period based on continued employment by the participant. After the 3 year period, funds are disbursed to the participant.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
F990_P06_S0B_L11	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11	The controller prepares the 990 and submits it for review to the vice president for finance and the president. Once the 990 is approved by the president and vice president, it is provided to the board before filing. It is then signed by the vice president for finance and filed electronically.
F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	A annual Disclosure Form delineating conflicts is distributed to all trustees at the annual board meeting and must be signed by each trustee. A copy is mailed to any trustee that is absent and must be signed and returned. Trustees must recuse themselves from any discussion of or vote on any issue involving conflicts of interest. Key employees and officers must also sign an annual conflict of interest form which clearly delineates conflicts of interest. College counsel monitors and reviews the conflict of interest statements. The president's office collects and maintains them.
F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The executive committee of the board serves as the compensation committee for the president's position. CCC and CCCU compensation studies of college presidents are reviewed by the committee and the salary is set by committee vote. The president has an annual review by the committee and is judged based on attainment of goals for the year. The president submits compensation comparability data for the provost, vice president for finance and executive vice president positions. Compensation increases are based upon job performance and the independent studies. Minutes are kept of the process and the committee vote. The last review process took place in 2010.
F990_P06_S0C_L19	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Our governing documents are available upon request. Our conflict of interest policy is available on our public web site. Our financial statements are available upon request and copies are maintained in the College library.
