Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	gifts to the endowment help to secure the school's long-term financial stability - and to fund the current priorities through the ongoing interest generated by the endowment Winsor honors donors to endowed funds each year in the annual report, which includes a full list of all named funds established since the school's inception by establishing an endowed fund or contributing to an existing fund, you can support winsor and the girls in several ways - a scholarship fund helps to make a winsor education possible for deserving students - an endowed fund can be designated to support a department, technology, athletics, the library, or faculty enrichment - an endowed faculty chair supports a teacher in her/his work with students and encourages proefssional development and personal growth
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The School accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. Interest and penalties assessed, if any, are accrued as income tax expense. The School has identified its tax status as a tax-exempt entity as a tax position, however, the School has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The School is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdiction. The School's federal and state tax returns are generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Once a year, each board member receives, signs, and returns a conflict of interest certificate to the Clerk of the board of trustees. The certificate informs the board member of the school's policy and allows them to disclose any positions with the school that might be considered as conflicting. The clerk reviews each of the certificates, and if a conflict arises, it is brought to the attention of other officers of the board. It is the responsibility of those officers to determine the extent of the conflict, with the goal of preventing abuse but not eliminating someone from doing business with the school for legitimate purposes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Based on comparability data and review by independent persons, the full board of trustees proposes, votes on, and sets the compensation for the CEO. There was contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. For other officers and key employees, the board of trustee's finance committee reviews available information for compensation and makes a recommendation to the full board which is then voted upon by the board.
