Our students learn to work alongside each other, take individual responsibility for their work, and flourish in an environment where older students often "teach" younger students new skills or concepts.

Mission Statement

Good Shepherd Montessori School is a diverse, cooperative learning community, governed by an independent Board of Directors that uses the Montessori method to nurture the character and uniqueness of the child and to inspire wonder and a joy of learning. It fosters spiritual growth in the Christian tradition and cultivates compassionate relationships with all people and just stewardship of the world's resources.

Our mission is based on the following beliefs:

We believe that all persons are created in the image and likeness of God.

We believe that diversity is God's creative tapestry and it is to be sought and celebrated, especially socio-economic and racial-ethnic diversity.

We believe in a cooperative school that depends on students, teachers, and parents to work together to accomplish the mission.

We believe that education of the whole person is an ongoing process that occurs most successfully when life activities at home and school are consistent.

We believe in the vision of child development, educational philosophy, methodology, and learning environment created by Dr. Maria Montessori.

We believe that respect for the child is the foundation for academic excellence and that the aim of education is to touch the imaginations of children and ignite their God-given curiosity and enthusiasm for discovery.

We believe that the spiritual formation of the child is inseparable from the intellectual formation, and is deepened and celebrated best through the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a Montessori approach focusing on Scripture and Catholic liturgy.

We believe that the ultimate aim of a Montessori education is to foster world peace and work toward global justice.

History of Good Shepherd Montessori School

Good Shepherd Montessori School opened its doors for the first time in September 2002, but the origin of Good Shepherd is found in years of friendships, conversations, and graduate school discussions. Good Shepherd began among a group of passionate parents who came together with a common desire to create a school that would be faithful to Maria Montessori's original vision, that would foster peace in a socio-economically, racially, and ethnically diverse environment, and that would be committed to Sofia Cavalletti's concept of religious formation found in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Her religious formation model was so vital to the mission of this new school that the parents chose to name the school after it, Good Shepherd Montessori School.

Central to the mission of Good Shepherd, then, is the religious potential of the child. Along with this, the parents desired a school that would serve the people whom Maria Montessori served when she began her school in the poor neighborhoods of Rome. Because of this, Good Shepherd is committed to bringing children of diverse economic and social backgrounds together in a learning environment of respect. Good Shepherd is committed to working with social entrepreneurs, parents, friends, and community leaders to secure matching scholarships for one-third of its student body.

We formed a Board of Directors, a nonprofit organization, found classroom space in the First Christian Church in downtown South Bend and opened with one lower elementary classroom and 16 children. Fueled by diligence and determination, Good Shepherd has continued to grow. In 2003 we added a second lower elementary classroom and in 2004 opened our first upper elementary classroom.

This year, 2009, marked a moment in history for Good Shepherd. We opened our Junior High classroom to serve children grades seven through eight. It is one of the few Montessori Junior Highs in the state of Indiana.

We also purchased the First Christian Church building that we originally leased. We are located in downtown South Bend, within 10 minutes of the University of Notre Dame, and are on well-traveled Transpo bus routes. We are currently pursuing joint accreditation with the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS) and the American Montessori Society (AMS).

Why Choose Good Shepherd Montessori School?

Our goal at Good Shepherd is to inspire a lifelong love of learning. Our culture is based on mutual respect, understanding, and a collaborative partnership with parents, students, and faculty.

We work to educate the whole child – academically, spiritually, socially, and emotionally. We celebrate the uniqueness of each child and respect each child's individual interests and learning style. As a cornerstone of Montessori education, we use an integrated, interdisciplinary approach to learning.

Our students learn the art of critical thinking, researching, self-expression, and practical problem solving. Our classroom environment fosters independent thought as well as collaborative efforts. Children learn to work alongside one another, they take individual responsibility for their work, yet also flourish in an environment where older children often "teach" the younger children a new skill or concept. Artificial competition for grades is eliminated, since each child works at his/her own level, and is compared only to the goals set by the classroom teacher and himself/herself.

Our teachers are committed to the mission and beliefs of Good Shepherd and the effort and dedication put forth can be felt daily in the classroom. They create caring environments, guide each child to find his or her best way to learn from the environment, and nurture our students daily.

This provides our students with a sense of the school as a community and distinguishes Good Shepherd from other schools in our area.
