Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		All officers, key employees, members of the Board and Policy Council must, at least annually, file Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement with the Compliance Officer, who will keep a confidential file of these Statements. Board and Policy Council members must disclose all situations that may pose a potential or actual conflict of interest. Members of the Board of Directors and Policy Council have an affirmative obligation to update their annual Disclosure Statement and provide it to the Compliance Officer whenever new information arises which would otherwise be required to be included in the annual Disclosure Statement. In addition to completing a Disclosure Statement annually and as potential conflicts arise thereafter, Board members must disclose the actual or potential conflict to the Board of Directors (or in his or her absence, such disclosure shall be made by another Board member having knowledge of the facts). If the Compliance Officer believes a potential or actual conflict of interest exists, the Compliance Officer will review the facts related to the potential or actual conflict of interest and make recommendations to the Chairman of the Board as to the appropriate course of action. The compliance officer shall consult with outside counsel and unrelated members of the board formulating his recommendation, and may, at his discretion, seek advice or recommendations from management. Based on recommendations from the compliance officer, the Board of Directors and Policy Council shall vote to take such actions as it may deem necessary to minimize the conflict of interest and its potential adverse effects on the well-being of Yeled. Such actions may include, but are not limited to (a) Requiring the conflicted Board or Policy Council member to recuse himself from discussion of, or Board or Policy Council action on, matters affected by the conflict of interest, including requiring physical absence from Board or Policy Council discussions and votes, (b) Requiring the conflicted Board or Policy Council member to divest himself, or arrange for a family member's divestment, of any interest in any entity that may create a conflict of interest, (c) Requiring a reconsideration of any action the Board or Policy Council perceives may have been affected by an undisclosed conflict of interest, or (d) Recommending the resignation, non-reappointment, or removal from the Board or Policy Council of a member with a persistent and unremedied conflict of interest. The minutes of the Board of Directors and Policy Council shall contain (a) The names of Board or Policy Council members who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the conflict of interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board and Policy Council decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. (b) The names of persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternative to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Compensation System will be objective and non-discriminatory in theory, application and practice. The Agency has determined that this can best be accomplished by utilizing a system of checks and balances initiated by Executive Management and approved by the Yeled V'Yalda Compensation Committee ('Committee') and the Agency's Governing Body. The salary recommendation/approval process is as follows: 1. The Human Resources Department first presents to the Committee any salary recommendations for (1) Yeled V'Yalda Executives and (2) any additional employees earning a salary greater than $100,000 annually. They compare data from local, national and industry specific surveys to determine that the compensation is deemed reasonable. The agency will obtain and maintain such data by regularly conducting wage comparability studies. If the information can not be obtained by the agency and deemed necessary they will contact consulting firms for this information. 2. Any salary recommendation(s) by the Committee is presented to the Board of Directors who will consider the recommendation and make the final decision. This process was documented in the board minutes. The process was last completed in April 2010.

Form 990 part III, line 1	Mission statement	As a dynamic and multifaceted not-for-profit social service agency, YELED V'YALDA EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER's (YYV) mission is to provide boys and girls from low income families in the New York City area with a high-quality preschool education by focusing on the whole child and family through YYV's network of educational programs and services. We seek to be a single source of education, child care and developmental services and to provide health and nutritional guidance in an environment that is culturally sensitive and honors each family's unique heritage. YYV's programs enable both typically developing and children with special needs to reach their potential. YYV also supports stable and healthy marriages and families by providing services that include without limitation, guidance and instruction on healthy lifestyles, recreational and structured physical activity programs for children and their families in our fitness center and space for low-cost wedding ceremonies. YYV's dynamism and vitality is its focus on the health and stability, as well as the educational and social services needs, of the community, the entire family unit, and its individual family members.

DAY CARE HEAD START COLLABORATION - The Day Care Program is funded by New York City to provide childcare services to income eligible preschool children. The collaboration with Head Start permits the provision of enhanced Head Start services to the children and families enrolled within the Day Care Program. As such, the family-centered approach provided in the Head Start program is made available to the Day Care Program participants. CHILD CARE FOOD PROGRAM (CACFP) - The CACFP program is funded by the New York State Department of Health - Department of Nutrition and provides daily meals and snacks to Yeled V'Yalda's Head Start children. WOMEN, INFANTS AND CHILDREN (WIC) - The WIC program is funded by the New York State Department of Health to serve low income participants. It provides nutrition education, lactation counseling, nutritious foods, and referral to health care for eligible expecting, nursing, and post partum mothers, and infants and children to age 5. The collaboration with the other divisions of Yeled v'Yalda such as Head Start, and the Early Head Start Expectant Moms Program allows participants to benefit from all inclusive services in one convenient and accessible location. OTHER SERVICES - Other services include a host of programs for the community. They include Facilitated Enrollment, Healthy Families, Eat Well Play Hard and more. As part of their overall mission of bringing health and well-being to the community, Yeled v'Yalda recently opened a Fitness Center to provide a state of the art fitness experience for the Head Start parents and community to enjoy.
