The charter also has been published by the Collection. A copy of the Collection's audited financial statements may be obtained by written request to the Collection or to the office of the New York State Attorney General. Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	Under the bylaws, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees recommends the compensation of the Director and Chief Executive Officer (the "Director") to the full Board of Trustees for its review and approval. The Compensation Committee also is responsible for setting the compensation of the other officers and key employees (who are compensated in their capacity as employees and not as officers) based on the recommendations of the Director. The positions for which this procedure is followed are the Deputy Director and Assistant Secretary, the Controller and Assistant Treasurer, the General Counsel and Assistant Secretary, the Associate Director and Chief Curator, the Deputy Director for External Affairs, and the Chief Librarian. In determining the reasonableness of compensation paid to each of the foregoing individuals, the Compensation Committee, and the Board of Trustees in the case of the Director, reviews comparability data available for peer organizations, including Forms 990, published compensation surveys, information furnished by an independent compensation consultant, and direct inquiries conducted by the organization's administration. The compensation analysis is undertaken annually and the most recent meeting of the Compensation Committee for such purposes was held on May 12, 2010.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	The conflict of interest policy covers each member of the Board of Trustees, officer, and key employee of the Collection (collectively "covered persons"). Each covered person makes annual written disclosures regarding entities known to do business with the Collection and in which the covered person or a family member of the covered person has a personal, business or organizational interest or affiliation. The completed disclosure statements are reviewed by the Collection's General Counsel and Assistant Secretary. The policy additionally requires covered persons to disclose potential conflicts of interest as they arise to the Chair or the Secretary, who in turn make a report to the Board of Trustees or relevant committee of the Board. The Board or relevant committee may refer a conflict of interest to the Audit Committee for consideration and resolution. A transaction involving a conflict of interest for a covered person must be approved by only those Trustees or committee members who do not have a conflict with respect to the transaction. The covered person may not vote on the transaction or participate in discussions of the transaction other than to answer questions or, at the request of the Board or committee, to elaborate on the information presented.
