In addition, the Society is tax exempt from state and local income tax for related activities, property taxes, and sales tax. During the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, the Society was not subject to unrelated business income taxes. The Society has evaluated its tax positions and has determined that it is more likely than not that there are no significant uncertain tax positions and it will continue to be exempt from taxes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Form 990, SCH D, Part III, Line 1a & Line 4               | Collections Items    | Line 1a The Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller 3rd Collection of Asian Art (the Rockefeller Collection) is noted for both its large number of masterpiece quality objects and the scholarly import awarded to these pieces. The Rockefeller Collection is Pan Asian and includes approximately 300 objects, ranging in date from the second millennium B.C.E. to the 18th century, from such diverse nations as India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal, Myanmar, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Indonesia, China, Korea, and Japan. It includes a large number of bronze sculptures and ceramics, as well as paintings, wooden sculptures, and other decorative arts. Most of the Rockefeller Collection was donated to the Society in 1979. Additions since that time consist principally of donations from the estate of Mrs. Blanchette Rockefeller. In addition to frequent displays in the exhibition galleries at the Society, selected works from the Rockefeller Collection are also shown as part of special exhibitions either at the Society or in museums throughout the world. When not on display at the Society or on loan to museums for temporary exhibitions, the objects are maintained in climate controlled storage. The Society maintains policies and procedures addressing the Rockefeller Collection's upkeep as well as other aspects of its management, including accession/deaccession policies. The Society has adopted the policy of not capitalizing its collection. During 2010, art was acquired with donor restricted funds at a cost of $14,000. During 2009, art was acquired at a cost of $57,016. This expenditure was included as an operating expense. No art was acquired in 2008. Line 4 Asia Society's collection furthers the exempt purpose of the organization by preserving Asian art work for public viewing and is used in educational exhibitions and publications. |
