Roberts Wesleyan College has also been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. CGRI is a for-profit corporation organized under Section 402 of the New York State Business Corporation Law. The College has adopted ASC Section 740, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. For tax-exempt entities, their tax-exempt status itself is deemed to be an uncertainty, since events could potentially occur to jeopardize their tax-exempt status. ASC Section 740 provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosures, and transition. The College adopted the provisions of ASC Section 740 on July 1, 2009 and there was no impact on the consolidated financial statements. At the date of adoption and as of June 30, 2010, the College did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The College files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. The College is no longer subject to U.S. federal tax examinations by tax authorities for years through 2006.

SchJ_P01_S00_L01a	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	The College President's spouse is considered a key representative of the college and therefore travel costs related to certain official college related meetings are covered for her. The College President resides in college provided housing which also serves as a place for meeting with college guest, student, donors, and alumni at various times. Also, the college does pay dues for the President for one major club in the Rochester, New York area to provide quality, off-campus meeting venues. Only individuals, not organizations, are allowed to join this club. The President uses this membership entirely for college related business.
