Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Our programs nurture the creative spirit through music, art and drama, promote children's community engagement, and support parents in their work of raising strong children. Our mission is to give children the freedom to discover their unique passions and the support necessary for each one to develop a strong personal voice. A key component to fulfilling this mission is the education of teachers, caregivers and parents about the kinds of environments, tools and nurturing children need for optimal development.

We offer an early childhood program which teaches communication and parenting skills to parents while guiding children's development through creative, play based activities. In this environment, we model nonviolent conflict resolution skills for all ages. We also offer additional creative arts and after school programs, theatre and Shakespeare programs, and community service clubs for children.

Through fund-raising, we aim to make our programs available to all who seek them, regardless of their ability to pay, and we strive to promote developmentally appropriate practices among those serving children in south Florida. By collaborating with other non-profit organizations in our outreach programs, we continually work towards being better able to provide high quality arts education for all children in our community.
