CARES, INC. #20-1056579 Year End 6/30/10

FORM 990 PART III(A) EXEMPT PURPOSE ACHIEVEMENTS

STATEMENT A-2

Food Ministry:

CARES, INC. has provided a basic good quantity of quality food to over 175 Pickens County families per week –to all who have come to us with a demonstrated need and qualified by filing proper applications and being counseled about their life and how they can help themselves as we help them bridge the gap temporarily until they recover. We have practiced due diligence in follow up and caring for the family with particular concern for under girding the children of these families. During our fiscal year July 1, 2009 –June 30, 2010 Cares, Inc. has enforced policies regarding client eligibility and intervention whereby after counseling and on a case by case basis Cares is providing food to all according to our policy passed by the board previously. The majority of the recipients receive food every two weeks but a few pre-qualified cases still receive food weekly. The facility is complete and paid for completely at the close of the fiscal year.

Financial Assistance:

CARES, INC. provides emergency and temporary financial assistance to those who apply to us and whom we find have a need to under gird the family and protect the children. We are helping them to make it through a tough time financially to prevent homelessness. We will pay part of utility bills and medications once per year and only a certain amount normally. During our fiscal year we counseled everyone who called or applied and helped those where were most needy whenever possible. During our fiscal year July 1, 2009 – June 30, 2010 we gave out over $66,000 to supplement emergency needs of basic living. Cares now requires those receiving financial assistance to work at two specified non-profit charities one hour for each $25.00 received as per our policy described as “working for money.”

Educational Assistance:

A new program called Transportation, Child Care, and Expenses was started in April 2010, and CARES, INC has approved 32 students. This is a program to assist deserving students of Chattahoochee Technical College, who otherwise could not enroll, with transportation and child care needs while attending classes, and other students referred by the financial aid office. We require that students verify enrollment and timely completion of courses, and adhere to college requirements.
