The $360,800 on Part XII line d is the change in fair value.

For FIN 48 Footnote, that reads as follows in our 2009 audited financial statements: "The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of state law. However, the Foundation is subject to federal income tax on any unrelated business taxable income. The Foundation files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. With a few exceptions, the Foundation is no longer subject to U.S. federal examinations by tax authorities for years before 2007."

On Part XI, line 8, this is the change made under SFAS #116 where we began recording in-kind contributions. The difference between the revenue and expenses for this year compared to net assets is the difference in the in-kind contributions that we began recording in the books this year.

Part VI, #11: The method by which the Kuali Board reviews the 990 is for the Executive Director and the Treasurer to bring the completed form to them for review before the form is submitted. However, it is the responsibility of the Executive Director and Treasurer to approve, sign, and submit the form.

Part VI, #12c: Each member of the Board of Directors is required to annually complete a Conflict of Interest Disclosure form to verify that they have read and understand the policy and are in compliance. In addition, between these annual disclosures the Board and Executive Director review any changes in the roles of its Board members to evaluate if possible conflicts exist. If a conflict does exist, the person with the conflict is excused from the discussion.

Part VI, #19: The organization makes public all agendas and minutes from the Board's meetings on its public web site. The audited financials are also on the public web site. The bylaws and policies are posted on the public web site.

Part XI, #2c: The organization had its first independent audit this year and will continue to do so annually each year. Because the organization has grown significantly, the Board has done the due diligence to make a selection of an independent accountant to audit the books. In addition, we have made significant changes in the books over the past two years to ensure compliance with GAAP.

Part VI, #6, #7a, and #7b: The members are those who become dues-paying members of the organization and they vote in elections for seats on the governing body. The governing body must consult them on changes to the bylaws and provide to them at least once per year an update on the organization including its financial status.

Part X: On the Balance Sheet, much of our revenue and expenses are donated services. Therefore they are reflected in the assets and liabilities on the Balance Sheet, but they are not reflected in the functional revenue and expenses. The reconciliation of this is shown in Schedule D, Parts XI, XII, and XIII.

Under SFAS #116, this organization made changes in how we record in-kind contributions. Because many of our assets fall into this category now, there was a change in total net assets reported on our 990 in previous years, and the total this year. That change was approximately $25 million dollars. The details are listed in Schedule D,

Part XI.
