ARCHIVAL PROGRAM - The Rockefeller Archive Center is an independent operating foundation that preserves and makes available for research the archival collections of members of the Rockefeller family, institutions and organizations founded by Rockefeller family members (including the Rockefeller Foundation, Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation, General Education Board, Rockefeller University, Population Council, Asia Society, and many other organizations) and the records of other philanthropic and service organizations such as the Commonwealth Fund, Russell Sage Foundation, W.T. Grant Foundation, Markle Foundation, the Social Science Research Council and the Foundation Center. The Center also holds extensive collections of the personal papers of trustees, officers, faculty, and associates who were affiliated with these institutions.	$ 4,531,109.

The Archive Center is located in Hillcrest, a home of Westchester County field stone built for Martha Baird Rockefeller (1895-1971), the second wife of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. (1874-1960). The house was designed by Mott B. Schmidt and was completed in 1963. Mrs. Rockefeller personally planned the furnishings of the house, but advancing age and illness prevented her from living in it. After her death, the house was given to the Rockefeller Brothers Fund as part of her residual estate. In March 1974 the Rockefeller Brothers Fund gave the house and the surrounding 24 acres of grounds for use as the Rockefeller Archive Center.

The house provides work space for both researchers and staff and includes a few rooms where Rockefeller memorabilia are on display. Researchers who visit the RAC work in the Reading Room on the second

The Center's Reading Room is open to researchers on weekdays from 9:00 a.m. until 5:15 p.m.. Research appointments are required. Appointments must be made with, and confirmed by, a staff member in advance of a research visit. Photo identification is required. Researchers are advised to contact the Center to make an appointment before making travel plans. Driving directions, a listing of the Center's holiday closings and local accommodation information is available at the Researcher Information section of this website. Researchers are invited to write to the Center, describing their projects in specific terms. The staff will respond with a description of the scope and content of relevant materials in the collections.

RESEARCH & EDUCATION -	$ 720,065.

The Research and Education Department oversees many of the external programs of the Rockefeller Archive Center. It administers a competitive grant program that awards 40 to 50 research grants each year to graduate students, faculty members, and independent scholars. It organizes and hosts several workshops and conferences each year. And staff members on the research and education team edit and publish a series of research reports describing scholarly work at the RAC, a publishing program that is now primarily electronic and web-based.

The 2009 renovation of the Archive Center's Carriage House provides space for the research and education staff as well as three to six visiting scholars. The scholar-in-residence program serves researchers who have done research at the Archive Center and learned that they need to spend an extended period of time, ranging from several months to a full academic year, on their archival research. The staff has also expanded an annual teaching fellows program for area middle and high school teachers interested in using primary source materials in their classrooms.

The educational programs engage a number of area colleges and universities. The RAC brings university faculty and their graduate or undergraduate students to the Archive Center for course-related lectures and seminars, advises students on papers and theses, and helps faculty to find primary materials for their teaching. The staff offers lectures, seminars, and workshops for the Archive Center's college summer intern program. They also participate in meetings of various professional associations, delivering papers and organizing panels for RAC researchers.

There are several public outreach initiatives of the research and education program. The RAC regularly invites members of local historical societies to tour the archives. It organizes exhibits and presentations about archival holdings for board and staff members of
