Part VI, Line 11a: Due to the large number of board members (63), it is not practical for each member to review Form 990 and the audited financial statements prior to filing. Therefore, such documents are provided to key representatives of the Finance Committee, the organization's Chair, Executive Director and Treasurer, and the VP for Finance of Middlesex County College.

Part VI, Line 12c: The Foundation has a Conflict of Interest Policy for Trustees and Directors to review and sign new declarations effective for each fiscal year. Forms are sent for completion to each Board member and returned to the Foundation.

Part VI, Line 15a: The compensation of the Executive Director is reviewed annually by the organization's Executive Committee, serving as an ad hoc compensation committee. The annual evaluation is compared to written and measurable performance objectives agreed upon one year prior to the review. The appropriate compensation package is determined by reference to industry-specific reports and other studies of comparable organizations. Areas of leadership responsibility which are taken into account include fundraising, scholarship administration, financial management, personnel skills, development of best practices and similar qualities. Compensation is directly linked to experience, performance objectives and job description. The compensation package agreed to by the Executive Committee is approved by the full Board at a meeting prior to the start of the next fiscal year, and is subject to review and re-evaluation during the year by the Executive Committee.

Part VI, Line 15b: There are no officers other than the Executive Director who are compensated or employees who meet the definition of "key employee".

Part VI, Line 19: Governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial information will be made available upon receipt at the organization's office of a written request for such information. Form 990 is available on "Guidestar".

Part VII, Section A: Average hours per week of the board members has been estimated by the organization. All of the Board members are volunteers who receive no compensation or expense reimbursement. As non-employees they are not required to file time sheets or otherwise account for their time. They give of their time and expertise to promote the mission of the organization, expending the level of effort they feel is required to fulfill their obligation. Asking them to quantify this effort in terms of hours would be an affront to their dedication and discourage other qualified persons from considering service to the organization.

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

OMB No 1545-1709

► File a separate application for each return.

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box ☒
 - If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form).
- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension—check this box and complete Part I only ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.

Electronic Filing (e-file). Generally, you can electronically file Form 8868 if you want a 3-month automatic extension of time to file one of the returns noted below (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T). However, you cannot file Form 8868 electronically if (1) you want the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension or (2) you file Forms 990-BL, 6069, or 8870, group returns, or a composite or consolidated Form 990-T. Instead, you must submit the fully completed and signed page 2 (Part II) of Form 8868. For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.

Donor Bill of Rights

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To ensure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the nonprofit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

I.

To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.

II.

To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.

III.

To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.

IV.

To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.

V.

To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.

VI.

To be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.

VII.

To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.

VIII.

To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.

IX.

To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.

X.

To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

The Donor Bill of Rights was created by the American Association of Fund Raising Counsel (AAFRC), Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP), the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). It has also been embraced by
The Middlesex County College Foundation
