Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 9	Description of How Organization Reports Conservation Easements	The College owns approximately 358 acres of land in Bucks and Montgomery counties under agricultural conservation easements pursuant to the Agricultural Area Security Law. Under these agricultural conservation easements, the College's use of the land is limited to the production of crops, livestock and livestock products, and other agricultural production.
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The use of endowment funds is based on the restriction placed by the donor. Any board-designated quasi-endowment funds are used primarily for student scholarships.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The College follows the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance that requires a tax position to be recognized or derecognized based on a "more likely than not" threshold. The College does not believe its financial statements include any uncertain tax positions. The College's policy is to recognize interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. No interest or penalties were recognized in 2010 or 2009.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Conflict of Interest surveys are completed annually by the Board of Trustees and Delaware Valley College staff. These surveys are reviewed by senior management to determine if there is any potential conflict of interest. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest by the Board of Directors and officers, an interested person must disclose the existence of his or her financial interest and must be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. If an employee has a vested interest in a firm that is doing business with the College, the employee must report the interest to the President and must not represent the College in transactions between the firm and the College. No employee can accept employment in any organization which conducts business with the College or is a College competitor. Faculty who teach part time at other educational institutions are not considered in violation of this policy. Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.
