See additional data

- 2 Needs assessment. Describe how the organization assesses the health care needs of the communities it serves

Part VI, Line 2 A community health assessment provides the informtion needed to consider when developing effective interventions so that communities may identify issues of greatest concern and decide to commit resources to those areas, thereby making the greatest possible impact on community health status Several community organizations come together to form a committee whose responsibility is to formulate questions to be asked of community members A consultant then collects the data and analyzes it on our behalf The greatest needs are then determined and programs are designed around those needs

- 3 Patient education of eligibility for assistance. Describe how the organization informs and educates patients and persons who may be billed for patient care about their eligibility for assistance under federal, state, or local government programs or under the organization's charity care policy

Part VI, Line 3 There are posters, brochures, and advocates all around the hospital that provide the information and educate patients about our charity care policies Patients are encouraged to and assisted by hospital staff in filling out necessary applications for charity care The hospital's charity care program is used as a last resort for any patient who demonstrates an inability to pay

- 4 Community information. Describe the community the organization serves, taking into account the geographic area and demographic constituents it serves

Part VI, Line 4 The community defined for this assessment includes each of the Pennsylvania zip codes 17316, 17301, 17350, 17364, 17362, 17344, 17331, 17329 & 17340 Secondary data is collected and representative of the entire counties of York and Adams

- 5 Community building activities. Describe how the organization's community building activities, as reported in Part II, promote the health of the communities the organization serves

Part VI, Line 5 Hanover Hospital offers a wide variety of lectures, presentations and other programs to educate the public about health issues, such as chronic disease prevention, cancer prevention, mental health awareness, cardiovascular disease prevention, and healthy behaviors We also have strong community collaborations with Hanover Area YMCA, Hanover Chamber of Commerce, Hanover YWCA, Healthy York County Coalition, Healthy Adams County, and numerous other organizations

- 6 Provide any other information important to describing how the organization's hospitals or other health care facilities further its exempt purpose by promoting the health of the community (e g , open medical staff, community board, use of surplus funds, etc)

See additional data

- 7 If the organization is part of an affiliated health care system, describe the respective roles of the organization and its affiliates in promoting the health of the communities served

- 8 If applicable, identify all states with which the organization, or a related organization, files a community benefit report

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Review of the draft of the Form 990 is performed by the officers and the members of the audit committee of the board. A special meeting is organized when the return is ready for review and directors and officers are encouraged to ask questions about how and why we report the required information. All members of the board of directors are given a final copy of the Form 990 prior to filing with the IRS.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		HH's Code of Conduct contains Principles outlining the policy of HH and Standards that are intended to provide guidance to all individuals participating in HH's operations. The Principles and Standards shall be distributed at least annually to all directors, officers, employees and agents of HH. Individuals are responsible to ensure that their behavior and activity is consistent with the Code of Conduct. The term "individuals" includes directors, employees and agents of HH and includes directors, employees and agents of HH and includes any person who fills such a role or provides services on behalf of HH including non-employed members of HH's Medical Staff providing services in HH, non-physician practitioners exercising privileges in HH, interns and medical students and shall include volunteers in HH. Upon hire and annually thereafter, all employees must complete our Compliance training, including review of our Code of Conduct statement. A copy of the Code of Conduct is located in HH's Administrative Policy Manual. Our Code of Conduct has standards and policies that address conflicts of interest. It is each employee's responsibility to review and comply with the Code of Conduct or discuss any questions or report any concerns to the Corporate Director of Compliance. Individuals are instructed that they owe undivided and unqualified loyalty to HH. Individuals may not use their positions to profit personally or to assist others in profiting in any way at the expense of HH. Individuals are expected to conduct themselves so as to avoid actual impropriety and/or appearance of impropriety in dealing with HH and to avoid disclosure or private use of the business affairs or plans of HH. Determination of whether a conflict of interest exists or not and the assignment of any necessary action is made by the HH's Audit Committee, a subcommittee of our Board of Directors. Participation on Board of Directors/Trustees - An individual must obtain approval of HH Compliance Officer prior to serving as a member of the Board of Directors/Trustees of any organization whose interests may conflict with those of HH. An individual who is asked or seeks to serve on the Board of Directors/Trustees of any organization whose interest would not impact HH (e.g., civic, charitable, fraternal, etc.) will not be required to obtain approval. - Individuals shall seek the approval of HH Compliance Officer prior to retaining any fees or compensation (other than reimbursement for expenses) that are received by the individual for board services which may have been rendered during normal paid work time as an employee of HH.
