Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Crispus Attucks Association of York, PA follows the provisions of the accounting standard for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statements and prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. The standard also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure. Management has determined that the standard does not have a material impact on the financial statements. CA's federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Returns for the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008, and 2007 remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b		Committees do not have the authority to act on behalf of the board. All committee recommendations are taken to full board for action and approval. Committee meetings are not documented.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Director of Finance will review the Form 990 in detail. A copy of the Form 990 will be provided to the Association's Finance Committee for their review. The Treasurer of the Board will provide a copy of the Form 990 to each Board member via e-mail, if e-mail is not available a copy will be supplied before board meeting. Upon final approval of the Form 990 by the Finance Committee, the Board will approve the filing of the Form 990.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		A conflict of interest may exist when the interests or concerns of any director, officer or staff member, or said person's immediate family, or any party, group or organization to which said person has allegiance, may be seen as competing with the interests or concerns of this organization. Any possible conflict of interest shall be disclosed to the board of directors by the person concerned. When such conflict of interest is relevant to a matter requiring action by the board of directors, the interested person shall call it to the attention of the board of directors (or its committee) and such person shall not vote on the matter. Moreover, the person having a conflict shall, at the board's discretion, retire from the room in which the board (or its committee) is meeting and in no event shall participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding the matter under consideration. However, that person shall provide the board or committee with any and all relevant information upon request of the board. When there is doubt as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the matter shall be resolved by a vote of the board of directors (or its committee), excluding the person concerning whose situation the doubt has arisen.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The organization does not make the governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements public since it is not required by federal or state law. The organization includes a copy of its financial statements with the state registration filed with the Pennsylvania Department of State, Bureau of Charitable Organizations. These documents are a matter of public record and can be viewed at the bureau office.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c		Finance committee assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit and selection of the independent accountant. They meet monthly and review all financial matters and make reports/recommendations to the Board, this is consistent with prior year.
