Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	THE INTENDED USE OF THE ENDOWMENT FUNDS IS TO PROVIDE A VARIETY OF SPECIFIC MUSIC RELATED SCHOLARSHIPS TO STUDENTS
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The Foundation's operations are exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and therefore, the Foundation has made no provision for federal income taxes in the accompanying financial statements In accordance with applicable financial accounting standards, the Foundation has elected to delay adoption of FIN 48 Accounting for Uncertain Tax Positions until its fiscal year beginning July 1, 2009 Under FIN 48, the evaluation of a tax position is a two-step process recognition and measurement Recognition Occurs when an enterprise concludes that a tax position, based solely on technical merits, will more likely than not be sustained upon challenge by a tax authority Measurement Takes place only if "recognition" occurs (i e the position will more likely than not be sustained) The measurement process provides that when the more likely than not threshold is met, the position must be analyzed to determine the amount of benefit to recognize in the financial statement Highly certain positions are fully recognized but require an independent evaluation that the position is in fact highly certain, all other positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement with a tax authority The Foundation's present policy is to evaluate all tax positions based on either having substantial authority for a tax position taken on a return or where substantial authority does not exist, then the Foundation discloses the tax treatment of the item and ensures that there is a reasonable basis for the treatment The Foundation has not taken tax positions for any years open under the various statutes of limitations that required disclosures because they were not supported by substantial authority The Foundation believes that most if not all of its positions supported by substantial authority would meet the recognition standard of FIN 48 The Foundation has not evaluated any tax positions with respect to the "measurement" standard of FIN 48 and is unable to determine the amount, if any, that would be required to be treated as "uncertain" under that standard
