SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Donations given to the Concordia University Foundation (CUF) are for endowments that ultimately assist Concordia University's educational and religious activities. Donors have placed restrictions on the endowment payout in the following ways: 1)Financial Aid given to Concordia University Students 2)Support for Concordia University's Student Services and Academics 3)Support of Concordia University's Maintenance and Operations of Plant and University general operations
SchD_P10_S00_L00	Schedule D, Part X	The University and the Foundation are organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") of 1986, as amended and, as such, are exempt from federal income tax on income earned related to exempt activities under IRC Section 501(a). The FASB issued guidance that requires tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. If an uncertain tax position meets the more-likely-than-not threshold, the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely to be recognized upon ultimate settlement with the taxing authority is recorded. The University is exempt from income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though they are subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purposes, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the IRC. There are no tax positions for which a material change in any unrecognized tax benefit liability is reasonably possible in the next 12 months. There are no interest or penalties recognized in the statement of activities or statement of financial position. The tax years ended 2007, 2008 and 2009 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. This guidance did not have any impact on the University's financial statements.
