Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	In accordance with the accounting standard on Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, the University addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the University may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merit of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the University and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. There were no significant unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during fiscal year 2010. Open tax years subject to examination by the U.S. taxing authorities are for the years 2007 to 2009, which statutes expire in 2010 to 2012, respectively.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The members of the foundation shall consist of those individuals who are serving, from time to time, as members of the board of trustees of Whitworth University
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The members of the foundation have the right to elect, appoint, remove, or replace any and all members of the governing body of the foundation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Whitworth Foundation has a process by which the Form 990 is reviewed by board members before filing the final return. The University's Audit Committee has been delegated as the Board review committee for the Form 990 and provides the full Boards of the Foundation and University with an opportunity for each member to review the Form 990 at least one week prior to its submittal to the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Whitworth Foundation board of directors annually complete a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. This questionnaire includes name and title of each director, and includes a list of questions pertaining to conflict of interest scenarios. These statements identify all actual or potential conflicts of interest that might be expected to occur in the coming year. All statements are circulated to the Executive Committee of the Foundation board for review and for resolution of noted exceptions.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The compensation of the related organization's President and those who report directly to the President is determined by an Executive Compensation Committee which is a subcommittee of the Board of Trustees. In addition to salary and benefits programs, the committee reviews and approves any employee and spousal travel, discretionary spending accounts, housing allowances and personal use of residences, payments for business use of personal residences, health or social club fees and personal services.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The governance documents, audited financial statements and Form 990 are available on the Whitworth Foundation website. The conflict of interest policies are only available upon request.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c		The oversight process has not changed from prior year.
Form 990, Part X		Beginning of the year column will not match prior year return's ending balance sheet. The balance sheet items had been historically reported with only the assets the Foundation directly holds, and had not included charitable trusts for which the foundation has a beneficial interest; instead, those trusts were reported individually and separately to the IRS. The current year's balance sheet reports all assets of the foundation, including those charitable trusts. These trusts will continue being reported individually and separately as well.
