The Bishop's University Foundation exists for the sole purpose of providing financial assistance to Bishop's University, in the form of funding for scholarships, bursaries, research, student support, faculty support, programs & projects, library acquisitions, etc.

Both entities are located in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Canada.

The Foundation and the University are externally audited by the same firm, which ensures that the amounts declared as disbursed to the University by the Foundation match the amounts reported as received in the University's records.

Most amounts are transferred to the University by way of an intercompany account.
