Form 990, Part III, line 2	New Program Services	ScholarMatch ScholarMatch launched this year and is one of 826 National's most significant programs Through ScholarMatch, we are committed to helping students pursue a college education, no matter what their financial status We provide students with an online tool to post a profile and engage the community-at-large to invest in their future Through this medium, donor-student relationships are formed and our students head off to college with the support and motivation to succeed Aligned with this mission is our commitment to providing offline resources to help students through the college process ScholarMatch currently accepts applications from college-bound students in the immediate Bay Area We currently serve 132 students, the majority of whom are the first in their families to go to college Throughout the year, we offer free workshops and in-school outreach in order to reach economically disadvantaged youth who have the opportunity to continue their education On our site, we were thrilled to feature a large majority of students who will be the first in their families to go to college As we grow, we plan to accommodate students from each 826 chapters across the country ScholarMatch's objectives are to * Provide a secure online tool for college-bound students to create profiles that reflect their commitment to their academic future * Provide an secure online space for potential donors to learn about the amazing students in their community, and ultimately pledge contributions toward that student's scholarship goal * Facilitate individualized donor and student relationships once a donation is made and that donor is matched with a student, the student sends written updates to his/her donor about their experience in college Our first six months of operation has facilitated a connection between 164 individual donors who have given their support to 46 students Through the effort of multiple individual donors, our students have been able to reach their scholarship goals, and in the fall of 2010, 17 of our 42 funded students were able to attend college having attained the goal they posted on ScholarMatch In addition to individual interest in our program, we have also received positive feedback about our organization, and have been able to raise awareness about our organization through * A feature in the San Francisco Chronicle, Oakland Tribune, and KQED's Forum with Michael Krasny * a featured listing at the Franklin Whole Foods location as a participating organization in their Nickels-for-NonProfits program * a spotlight of ScholarMatch students on KTVU's Bay Area People * an acknowledgement from San Francisco Magazine, where ScholarMatch placed second on their list of the Best of the (Brave, New) Bay Area 2010

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part V, Line 6a		This year 826 National started a new program called Scholar Match which is described in our top program achievements The program showcases Bay Area students who would like to attend college or university The students post their stories and the amount of funding they are seeking Donors peruse the student profiles and may choose to donate to a specific student or may choose to make a general contribution to the scholarship fund * Donations made to a specific student are non-tax deductible * Donations made to the general scholarship fund to be matched to a student by the program are tax-deductible In order to make a donation, donors click on the donate button within a student profile The screen they encounter says "Federal laws governing nonprofit organizations prohibit donors from "earmarking" tax-deductible donations to specific individuals Donors who choose to direct their donations to a specific student are entitled to and may do so through ScholarMatch, but these donors will forgo the tax-deductibility of their donation " Donors then have two choices - They can click on the button that says "I would like to donate to this specific student and forgo a tax deduction " -or- - They can click on the button that says "I would like to make a tax deductible donation and be matched with a student by Scholar Match " The program is following federal tax laws in soliciting non-tax deductible donations when the donor wants to select the specific student-beneficiary of their donation The program offers the second option so donors have a tax-deductible alternative
