Presenting events: SCBS produces concerts featuring its own choirs and outstanding guest ensembles, as well as participating in collaborative productions, festivals and other musical events.

Promoting education: SCBS sponsors an array of educational offerings, helping singers to build strong voices, sensitive ears and sharp minds.

Providing resources: SCBS provides its singers and the community-at-large with a wide range of resources, including scores, books, recordings, software and information.

Through these activities, the Sonoma County Bach Society works to build a community of musicians and music-lovers of all ages to share the experience of this magnificent music.
