Form 990-EZ, Part III, Primary Exempt Purpose - YouthRoots program is designed to do what the root of the word means: to love humankind while realizing your full human potential. The program is designed as two overlapping parts: youth (or personal) development and philanthropy. The Youth Board will complete various assessments to learn about themselves as well as learn about leadership, board room dynamics and governance. On the philanthropy side of things, they will conduct a needs assessment of their community to determine the top three funding priorities. Once they finish fundraising for the three areas, the youth will get the chance to practice their new found skills. They will have to lead, problem-solve, engage the team and decide where the money raised should go.

hopeful that it will be a success from early indicators.

Those indicators are: 22 applicants for the 15 spots - we advertised the program during the summer and still received a good response. The applicants were truly impressive and diverse young adults. The funding has come in when needed and not solicited.

The YouthRoots' Youth Board has already developed a plan for funding criteria and decided to channel grants to organizations that meet at least one of the following needs:

1. Early Childhood Education in hopes that it alleviates Childhood

Poverty

2. Teen Pregnancy Prevention and Assistance

3. Lowering the Denver high school dropout rate

YouthRoots' grant program will be carried out as an educational program designed to teach volunteer youth the benefits to society of philanthropic giving.
