		FIN 48 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes Effective January 1, 2009, generally accepted accounting principles require the conference to evaluate the level of uncertainty related to whether tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination. Any positions taken that do not meet the more-likely-than-not threshold must be quantified and recorded as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Management believes that none of the tax positions taken would materially impact the financial statements and no such liabilities have been recorded. With few exceptions, the conference is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. Federal, state or local tax authorities for the years ended June 30, 2006 and prior.

Supplemental Information	Part III	Richard Chryst, the former commissioner of the conference, received $100,000 in connection with a nonqualified deferred compensation plan upon severing employment with the conference. This amount was included as taxable wages on his 2009 Form W-2. His compensation for form 990 purposes has been reported for calendar year 2009. Richard Chryst was actively employed by the conference through June 30, 2009. Dr. Jon Steinbrecher participates in a nonqualified deferred compensation plan whereby he will receive a one-time bonus equal to $50,000 per year if he fulfills his existing contract with the conference. No amount was included in his W-2 as there is a substantial risk of forfeiture because he is not vested until the end of the contract. The conference recorded an accrual of $50,000, which represents the benefits earned under this agreement as of June 30, 2010. This amount is included as deferred compensation on part II of schedule J. In connection with their employment duties for the conference, Richard Chryst, Dr. Jon Steinbrecher, and certain other employees receive reimbursement of club dues that are used for business purposes. No amount has been included as additional compensation as the club memberships are used for business purposes and were paid pursuant to an accountable plan.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The members of the organization are the member universities of the conference. Policy and legislative authority is vested in the Council of Presidents. Each member university is represented on the council by that university's president.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		As the Council of Presidents is made up of the presidents of the member universities, and as each member university has the power to appoint a new internal president, each member university has the power to change their representative on the board. Ann Weaver Hart, president of Temple University, is a member of the governing body. However, her voting rights are limited to football-related issues only.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The form 990 is prepared by an outside CPA firm based on audited financial statements that are previously received and approved by the board. The form 990 is initially reviewed by the commissioner and the director of finance, and then discussed with the executive committee of the council of presidents. Any necessary changes will then be updated on the form. The revised form will be signed by the commissioner, dated and submitted by the filing deadline. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Each board or committee member has the duty to place the interest of the conference foremost in any dealings on behalf of the conference and has a continuing responsibility to comply with the conflict of interest policy. If a board or committee member or key employee has an interest in a proposed transaction with the conference in the form of a significant personal or organizational financial interest in the transaction, he or she must make full disclosure of such interest before any discussion or negotiation of such transaction. Any board or committee member who has a potential conflict of interest with respect to any matter coming before the board or the committee shall not participate in any discussion of or vote in connection with the matter unless invited to respond to questions or provide factual information by the board or committee chair. Any board or committee member or key employee who gains privileged information by virtue of his or her role as a board or committee member or key employee shall not use that privileged information for personal or professional gain.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The council of presidents is the independent governing body of the conference that is responsible for employing the commissioner and other senior administrators, prescribing duties and determining the terms and conditions of employment contracts. Compensation is reviewed and approved using data generally available as to comparable compensation for similarly qualified persons in functionally comparable positions at similarly situated organizations. There is contemporaneous documentation and recordkeeping with respect to the deliberations and decisions regarding the compensation arrangements.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		THE ORGANIZATION does not MAKE ITS GOVERNING DOCUMENTS, CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY, or FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC.
