Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	these funds are primarily made up of restricted net assets and are intended to further the exempt function of the organization
		FORM 990, SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes The Organization is generally exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code In addition, the Organization qualifies for charitable contribution deductions and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation Income which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes The Organization had no net unrelated business income tax for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively On July 1, 2009, the Organization adopted the accounting guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded on the financial statements Under this guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods Management evaluated the Organization's tax positions and concluded that the Organization had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance Consequently, no accrual for interest and penalties was deemed necessary for the year ended June 30, 2010 The Organization files income tax returns in the U S federal jurisdiction With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U S federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2006
