needs and priorities of Kent State University.

Part X, 2: Pursuant to determination by the Internal Revenue Service, the Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Foundation adopted guidance issued by the FASB with respect to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes as of July 1, 2009. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more-likely-than-not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more-likely-than-not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at June 30, 2010.

The Foundation would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax, respectively. The Foundation has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties at June 30, 2010 and is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for years before 2007. The Foundation does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next twelve months.
